

Invitation

The Hungarian Cultural Institute in Vojvodina and the Móra Ferenc Museum cordially invites you and your friends to a conference presenting the results of the research project “Traditional Architecture from a New Perspective” (NEWTRAD).

Fekete Ház (Szeged, Somogyi Street 13.)

Thursday, 28 November 2019

Registration time: 9.30 – 10.00

Program:

10.00 – 10.15: Welcome speech by Ottó Fogas, director general of the Móra Ferenc Museum

10.15 – 10.45: Gábor Ozsváth (ethnographer, historic preservation specialist, Szeged):
Constructions of farming as characteristics of the settlement

10.45 – 11.15: Ildikó Bárkányi (ethnographer, Móra Ferenc Museum): The results of the folk architecture research in the angle formed by the rivers Tisza and Maros

11.15 – 11.45: Ferenc Fodor (ethnographer, Móra Ferenc Museum): The situation of homesteads in the south-eastern part of the Homokhátság region

11.45 – 12.00: Comments

12.00 – 13.00: Break

13.00 – 13.30: Mária Szilágyi (ethnographer, historic preservation specialist, University of Novi Sad): Traditional Architecture from a New Perspective: experiences of field research in Banat and Bačka

13.30 – 14.00: Miklós Buzás (chief architect, Hungarian Open Air Museum, Szentendre):
Research in folk architecture and programs aiding the preservation of monuments and relics at the Hungarian Open Air Museum

14.00 – 14.30: Zoltán Firbás (cartographer, urbanist, Szeged): The complex representation of the historical cultural-geographical map of the Szeged region

14.30 – 14.45: Comments

14.45 – 15.00: Martina Gondi (director, The Hungarian Cultural Institute in Vojvodina):
Conclusion: experiences and results of the research project